

UPPER TRIBUNAL ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS CHAMBER

Notes for Applicants and Appellants Form UT3 (Mental Health)

The Administrative Appeals Chamber is part of the Upper Tribunal and decides appeals on point of law from decisions of the First-Tier Tribunal in mental health cases. The Upper Tribunal consists of High Court judges and other specialist judges appointed by the Queen.

Form UT3 is to be used for applying to the Upper Tribunal for permission to appeal, against a decision of a First-tier Tribunal. It should also be used for appealing to the Upper Tribunal if the First-tier Tribunal has already granted permission to appeal.

Form UT3 should be sent to the Upper Tribunal office so that it is received no later than one month after the date the First-tier Tribunal sent you notice of the refusal or grant of permission to appeal or the refusal to admit your application. If you are late, you must explain why in Part G of the form.

Before you use Form UT3

You must apply to the First-tier Tribunal for permission to appeal. You should have received information from the First-tier Tribunal about how and when to do this.

Part A – About the Applicant/ Appellant

An "Applicant" is a person applying to the Upper tribunal for permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal. An "Appellant" is a person who has been given permission to appeal and is now appealing to the Upper Tribunal. Form UT3 is for use by both Applicants and Appellants. It does not matter which you are.

You should tick the appropriate box to indicate whether you are the patient or patient's nearest relative or a responsible authority or other official applicant or appellant.

Part B – About the Patient

Whoever is completing this form as an applicant or appellant should complete Part B giving the information asked for about the patient.

Part C – About the patient's Nearest Relative

If you are making the application or appeal as the patient's Nearest Relative you should put your name and address in Part C.

Part D - About the patient or nearest relative's representative

The patient or nearest relative may be represented by a solicitor or by any other person. If you have a Representative, you should give their details in the boxes provided in Part D. The Upper Tribunal Office will then correspond only with your representative.

Part E– About the responsible authority

Whoever is completing this form as an applicant or appellant should complete Part E giving the information asked for about the responsible authority. If the patient is being detained or is on a community treatment order please give the details of the hospital where the patient is being detained or treated or the hospital which is responsible for the patient, if different. Put the name of the official in charge of the patient's case in the box provided.

If the patient is subject to guardianship please give the details of the responsible social services authority.

Part F– About the First-Tier Tribunal which decided your case

The place of the First-tier Tribunal hearing, the date of the decision and the number of your case should all be on the tribunal's written decision.

Part G– Reasons for any delay

You should have made a written application to the First-tier Tribunal for permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal so that it was received no later than 28 days after you were sent written reasons for the tribunal's decision (or notification of amended reasons or correction following a review or notification that an application to set aside was not successful).

Form UT3 should be sent or delivered to the Upper Tribunal office so that it is received no later than one month after the date the First-tier Tribunal sent you notice of the refusal or grant of permission to appeal or the refusal to admit your application.

If your application or appeal to the Upper Tribunal is late you must ask for an extension of time and explain the delay in Part G of the form. You must show a good reason for the Upper Tribunal to accept your application/appeal.

If your application for permission to appeal was not admitted by the First-tier Tribunal because it was late it will only be admitted if the Upper Tribunal considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so. In any event you must explain the delay.

The Upper Tribunal may take into account the length of the delay, and other matters such as the amount of money at stake, the potential importance of the case, etc., so you can also mention these as reasons.

Use the box provided on the form or a separate sheet of paper if necessary. If you use a separate piece of paper, make sure it has your name on it.

Part H – Reasons for Appealing

You must explain why you think the First-tier Tribunal decision is wrong in law. Examples of mistakes of law are:

- The tribunal did not apply the correct law or wrongly interpreted the law.
- The tribunal made a procedural error.
- The tribunal had no evidence, or not enough evidence, to support its decision.
- The tribunal did not give adequate reasons (in the written statement of its reasons).

These are only examples and the First-tier Tribunal's decision may be wrong in law for some other reason. You should explain in as much detail as possible why the decision in your particular case is wrong in law. If you have a representative they will advise you and may complete the form for you. You should not miss the one month time limit for sending in your application form.

What you have said on Form UT3 will be treated as your main submission on the appeal (even if you are now only applying for permission to appeal). You should therefore make sure that you say everything you wish to at this stage. On the other hand, remember that short clear submissions may be more effective than long repetitive ones.

You may use a separate piece of paper if you wish, but make sure it has your full name on it and is sent with the form.

Part I– Request for an oral hearing of an Application

If you are applying to the Upper Tribunal for permission to appeal and you or your representative wish to appear before an Upper Tribunal judge at an oral hearing of your application, fill in the relevant boxes in Part I.

If you are refused permission to appeal (or given permission on limited grounds or subject to conditions) without an oral hearing you will be given the opportunity to ask (within 14 days) for that decision to be reconsidered at an oral hearing.

Hearings will normally be held in London but may also take place by video link from a number of places. You will be sent further information if the Upper Tribunal judge allows your request for an oral hearing.

Do not fill in the boxes about an oral hearing if the First-tier Tribunal has given you permission to appeal. In that case, or if you are given permission to appeal by the Upper Tribunal, you will be given an opportunity of asking for an oral hearing of your appeal at a later stage.

Part J – Application/ Appeal to the Upper Tribunal

Even if you have a representative, the Applicant or Appellant or Nearest Relative must sign the form personally in Part J. Your signature will be taken as authority for the representative named in Part D to act for you. The only exception to this rule is where the representative is a solicitor. A solicitor is presumed to be acting on instructions and may sign the form on behalf of the Applicant or Appellant or Nearest Relative.

Sending Form UT3 to the Office of the Upper Tribunal

Keep these notes in a safe place so that you have a record of the address of the Upper Tribunal Office.

Send Form UT3, and the documents listed at the end of the form, to the Upper Tribunal Office within the month allowed (see the notes to Part G above). If you are late, you can still send in your form but you must explain the delay in Part G of the form.

The address of the Upper Tribunal Office is:

11th Floor Cardinal Tower
12 Farringdon Road
London
EC1M 3HS

Telephone: 020 7549 4660
